EIGHTH GRADE

Class Will

The following wish to thank one another for being there when they needed a good friend:

Kristen Beard - Pam Weidl
Nicole, Kirsten, Jen - Melissa, Sue, Kristen, Kim and Pete
Ellen Krajewski - Lisa Noyes
Lori Foy - Kim Miller, Wendy Lawler and Kim Heim
Stephanie White - Julie Perkins
Darcie Lessard - Kathy Johnson
Sue DiFranco - Jenni Donley
Kelli McCarthy - Kristine Baj
Shelly Johnson - Tricia Garner

I, Tess Porcello, leave to Mr. Regalbuti, my little innocent sister.

I, Amy Howard, leave my sister, Stephanie, my footsteps to follow even though I think she will make her own.

I, Denise Redin, gladly leave my brother, Chuck, to J. F. K.

I, Kim Cears, leave Mrs. Michaels thanks for putting up with me these 2 years.

We, red house team 1, leave Mr. Stasio a group of 7th graders who are “focused in”.

We, the 2nd and 4th period classes of Mr. Askin, leave him knowing that all the homework we got didn’t do any good.

I, Heidi Vanderheider, leave my locker-kicking habit to the next person to get my (@ !*?! locker.

We, B. J. Michaels, Chip Laffargue, Brent Dietz, Pam Weidl, and Ken Murphy, leave Mr. LaBreck a tighter belt so he won’t have to pull up his pants as much in science.

I, Stephanie White, leave Miss Shonak my Thursday afternoon appointments.

I, Kim Cears, leave Miss Long strength to put up with another person like John Bowen.

We, Scott Callan and Billy Lee, leave the job of bringing the Hartford Courant to Mr. Cutler’s room to Marylou Coccia because she likes it so much.

I, Ann Fiore, leave Mrs. Siwinski one last thing; autor-revoir-good-bye.

I, Denise Redin, would like to leave Mr. Wood four “F’s” to give to someone else!

I, Michelle Dumais, leave Mrs. Drapeau a round tuit for all the times she said, “When I get around to it.”

We, the class of ’88, leave the cafeteria staff the question, “Where’s the beef?”

I, Stephanie White, leave Mr. Robinson and Mrs. Pabis my job in white house office first period to give to any able body who is willing to do the jobs they assign.

I, John Stroiney, leave Mrs. O’Brien my position as editor of the newspaper to give to some poor sap.

We, April Silva and Cindy Mercik, leave Mrs. Larson a bottle of Asprin for all the headaches we’ve given her.

We, Brian Sullivan and Matt Squires, leave Mrs. Drapeau a pound of jelly beans.

I, Lisa Johnson, leave Mr. Myers all the speeches that he gave us, and I leave Mr. Wood all his vocabulary words.

I, Glenn Fisher, leave Mr. Wood all my A+’s to give to another student who takes my place in science.

I, Lisa Johnson, leave Mrs. Wojciehowski all her subtraction, addition, division, and multiplication.

We, Pam Cerrato and Renee Chapdelaine, leave Mr. Madore one last poem that we all enjoyed so much: Dejeuner du matin by Jacques Prevert.

I, Kim Cears, leave Eddie Auger my good grades so he can finally pass next year.

We, the students of bus eleven, leave J.F.K. our infamous reputation.

I, Michelle Choiniere, leave Mr. Cosma the window that I was always opening.

I, Allyson Gendreau, leave John F. Kennedy willingly.

I, Kathy Pirece, leave Mr. Wasileski with the thought that even a wizard is wrong sometimes.

We, Kathy Pierce and Tracy Thibodeau, leave Mr. Naz with the thought that when it came to picking new lab partners, you really were "Nasty Naz".

I, Jack Riley, want to leave my Notre Dame shirt to Mrs. O'Brien.

I, Brian Sullivan, leave Mrs. Wojciehowski a carnation.

I, Ephraim Mower, leave Mr. Pigeon heritage, or hermitage, whichever source you use.

We, Barbara Morgan and Bobbie Verny, leave Mr. LaBreck a stool so he can see eye to eye with the students.

We, Rosanne Leahy, Cindy Mercik and Lynn Toolan, leave Mr. Hoza a big "YES"!

I, Michael Garrity, leave to Mrs. Solomon my I.P.S. Book to solve the problem of lab #3.5.

We, eighth graders, class of "83"- "84", leave J.F.K. to the on-coming seventh graders whom we hope have as good a two years as we did.

We, Justine Quagliaroli and Tammy Rood, leave Mrs. Langlois a room full of different colored carnations.

I, Lisa Harrison, leave Mr. Berault all the funny little drawings I made in math class.

I, Roberta Prior, would like to leave Mr. Lauria a brand new "plunger" with his very own "tidy-bowl-man."

I, Pat Boya, leave Mr. Breault 3 potatoes and the quote "This spud's for you!"

We, Mrs. Dumais' classes, leave her a 10 year supply of rabbit food for her preposition bunnies, Preppy, Fluffy and Sasha.

I, Beth Kindseth, leave Sheila Choinski a science book so I can have one all to myself.

I, Erik Wirtz, leave Tyler Timion a pair of socks.

I, Sue DiFranco, leave Pete Dubois a big "coin" to use over the summer.

I, Kristen Spruill, leave Mr. Climan the memory of the Spruill family musicians since this is the last year after 6 years that he will not have one of us in the band.

Mr. Blanchette's honors class, leave him a book entitled Color-coordinating.

I, Karen Gillespie, leave Mr. Waz my nickname (Dizzy) to give to any Gillespie he might meet in the future.

I, Karen Gillespie, leave Mrs. Scordato knowing she was a great teacher.

I, Kathy Johnson, leave Mike Contois an alarm clock so he can make it to school at least four times a week.

I, Beth Kindseth, leave Kathy Johnson three pairs of flat dress shoes so I don't feel so short.

I, Renee Chapdelaine, leave Mrs. Wojciehowski still unable to figure out what X is equal to.

We, John Bromage, Darren Bell, Scott Jennie and Chris Chapps, leave Dan Fogarty with the quote "Gee, thanks a lot. I really appreciate it!"

We, Mrs. Drapeau's homeroom, leave her a can of raid and a copy of "Know Your Bugs" for any future visiting cockroaches.

We, Miss Long's 5th period class, leave her a bushel of apples so she can continue to take one to lunch every day.

I, Mr. Bourassa, leave Tyler Timion by blinding fast speed with hopes he can use it next year during basketball season.

I, Tess Porcello, leave Mr. Berault a brand new un-used lav. pass.

We, Trevor Johnston and Billy Lee, leave the lyrics to "Take You Back" to any deserving student in Mr. Cressotti's class.

I, Billy Lee, leave next year's Blue House Vice President the fun job of finding a D.J. for the dance.

We would like to leave Lynn Toolan the song "Goodie Goodie Tu Shoes"

We, Craig Wojciehowski and Billy Lee, leave J.F.K. still trying to figure out the definition for BAHABA.

I, Shelly Johnson, leave with Mrs. Scordato still being called Miss Camilleri.

I, Shelly Johnson, leave with Miss Long paying Tricia and Shelly, not Shelly and Tricia, all the dimes she owes us for calling us by each other's name.

Mrs. Langlois thanks her English students for entertaining and enlightening her with two years worth of essays. She leaves them a piece of advice - "No goal is too high if you climb with confidence and love" - and best wishes for success in high school.

We, Kathy Johnson and Sheila Choinski, leave Carey Pike better luck with teachers in the future.

We, Lynn Toolan and Mary Maguire, leave Mrs. Bojajian with the thought that someday we will be achievers.

We, Heather Banks and Mary Maguire, leave Sue Giaccone to Dave Moore.

We, Glenn Fisher and Brian Sullivan, leave Miss Soja a Tom Selleck poster so she and look at the poster and think of us.

I, Stephanie White, would like to thank Heather Hellyar for letting me put my books in her locker.

We, period 1, leave Mrs. Caban her adjectives, adverbs and "Fer Sure".

We, Mr. Blancette's 7th period class, leave his future classes a pair of sunglasses so they won't be blinded by his tacky ties.

We, Mrs. Siwinski's 5th period class, would like to say that we really didn't hate French.

We, Heather Banks and Amy Allard, would like to leave Kirby Lollar all the breakdancing he did in the classroom.

I, Lynn Chickosky, leave Mr. Wazileski, Mr. Naz, Mr. Cowles, Mrs. Dumais, and Mrs. Chicklas a bottle of Aspirin for all the times they told me to "be quiet and sit down."

We, Erin Cullin and Michelle Dumais, leave Mr. Meyers our "questions and doubts."

I, Kathy Hoehn, leave Brigitte Smith all the good times we had in Spanish.

I, Nichole Usher, leave Mrs. O'Brien the power to overcome "Big Red".

We, Steven Sullivan, Jason Steadman and Ray Buttler, leave Mrs. Carney instructions on How to Light a Lighter - 1. Hold the lighter in one hand; 2. Put thumb on flint; 3. Turn flint wheel; 4. Hold down button

We, Amy, Heather, and Kristine, leave Mr. Stasio 5 w's.

I, Darcy Hunt, leave Miss Cademan a pair of combat boots and an army rifle to help her protect future basketball teams.

I, Ton Landry, leave Mr. Askin a brand new pencil.

My deep gratitude goes to Mrs. Langlois and Miss Conboy for making Candy O'Hara's two years in Kennedy O.K.

We, the girls of Mr. Wood's I.P.S. class, leave him all the elbow room he wants.

I, Kim Hastings, leave Mr. Hoza the words 'I love Math' so that he may give them to an incoming 7th grader.

We, Sherri and Chris, leave Lisa Harrison the memory of "Is my hair still puffy on the sides?"

We, Pete Dubois and Tyler Timion, leave Mr. Blanchette a copy of G. Q. magazine.

I, Dennis Gleeson, leave to Mr. Cowles all my unused history notes; to Mr. Wasileski, a hairdrier; to Mr. Nacewicz my nick name, Harry Hood, to give to any future student and, finally, I leave to Mrs. Dumais a step ladder so she can look her students right in the eye.

Mr. Pigeon leaves "Super Skiers", Crazy Keagan, Pitiful Pillitteri, and Tippy Tyler, all the luck in the world skiing, They will need it.

I, Candy O'Hara, leave Mr. Cosma the satisfaction of knowing I did learn something.

We, Jennifer Dresser and Kelly Derech, leave Mr. Meyers with the thought of having two history students like us.

We, Mrs. Drapeau's 3rd period class, leave her a supply of sticky-ups and hangy-downs.

The 8th grade A band members would like to give some advise to the 7th grade members, "Stay home this summer and practice your rest."

I, Kara Raffia, leave my cousin, Mike Renolds, my great humor and charm to use with his teachers as I did with mine.

We, Stephanie White and Julie Perkins, leave Mrs. Caban the hope of getting a different color room!

We, Julie Perkins and Stephanie White, leave Mrs. Carney some lessons to improve her art drawings.

We, the 8th grade, 1984 drama club, leave Mr. Anderson our Southern accents.

We, Roger Pease and Brian Sullivan, leave Miss Marran the thoughts of being small.

We, Mrs. Dembek's 3rd period gym class, leave Mr. Anderson's class 5 extra points so they can try to beat our class in the future.

We, Mrs. Siwinski's 1st period class, want her to know that we were just plain "magnifique".

I, Debbie Steven, leave Mrs. O'Brien the definition of "HONORS" students.

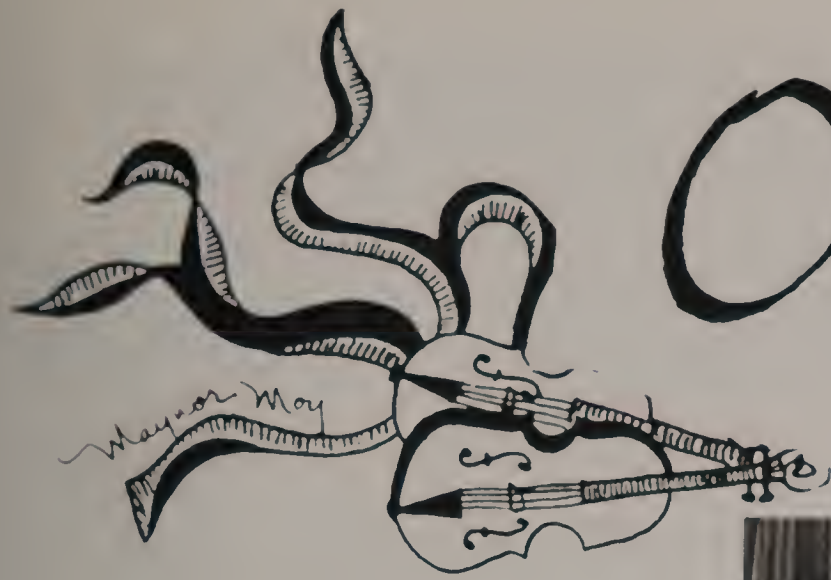

We, Rosanne Leahy, Lynn Toolan, and Cindy Mercik, leave Mr. Pigeon an over the summer report on the entire History of the World.
